WhyHunger has a vision for a society built on self-reliance, economic justice and equal access to nutritious and affordable food. A vision that can be realized by building a broad-based social movement working towards food sovereignty or food democracy that will change our global food system.

What does it mean to be a grassroots support organization?